New York, NY 10007

Dear honorable Jesse M. Furman

My name is Robinson Peralta. I am a pro-se litigant suing the city of New York for serious civil rights violations. The city of New York law department recently sent a letter for me to sign to release my records so that I can authorize the release of criminal records because it was sealed under New York procedure law 160.50 and/or 160.55. the reason I am asking the court to unseal these records is because I did not know that there was a criminal case against me. I don't have any information pertaining to this situation. Un-sealing the records will answer a lot of question as to why these violations are happening to me, and who is responsible for these false charges, thank you for this attention on this matter. I would appreciate it if you would unseal my records. SS#- [REDACTED] DOB- [REDACTED].
